Customer Reviews

"If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!" -- Mark 7:16 (NKJV) These twenty dramatic readings bring to life many of Dame Agatha Christie's finest short stories, most often featuring Hercule Poirot (and his little gray cells) and Miss Marple and her knitting. The stories are narrated by Hugh Frazer (9 stories), David Suchet (4 stories), Joan Hickson (3 stories), Christopher Lee (2 stories), Jonathan Cecil (1 story), and Nigel Hawthorne (1 story). If you love Hercule Poirot and Miss Marple, I believe you will be delighted with the kind treatment that Hugh Frazer and Joan Hickson provide them. The rest of the stories provide plot-twisting treats that will trip you up if you don't track the tales closely. Have a thoughtful listen to all this great logic!

Very good British mysteries. Well done!
