Pride And Prejudice: Dramatisation

Synopsis

Samantha Spiro, David Troughton and Amanda Root are among the cast of this new BBC Radio 4 dramatisation of Jane Austen's famous novel. Mrs Bennet is determined to see her five daughters married off and secure a future for them all. When the wealthy Mr Bingley arrives in the neighbourhood, Mrs Bennet wastes no time in making his acquaintance. His friend Mr Darcy, however, discourages Mr Bingley from marrying Jane Bennet, and also appears to snub her sister Elizabeth. When Elizabeth hears that Mr Darcy himself is of poor character, her innate prejudice of him is merely reinforced, and she roundly refuses his proposal of marriage. But then, when she discovers that she was misinformed, Elizabeth wonders if she can ever hope to see Mr Darcy again...Published over 200 years ago, Pride and Prejudice remains one of the British nation's favourite novels. Among the starring cast in this radio production are Pippa Nixon as Elizabeth and Jamie Parker as Mr Darcy.

But it states unabridged in the description and I question that. I've read the book a couple of times. Seems that there were some differences to me. Still very enjoyable to hear it played out.

Great performance of this classic novel. I had never read the story so it took me two times through to grasp everything, but I did enjoy it very much.
