Customer Reviews

I almost feel like you need a degree to understand this book. It delves into the history and all the particulars of Roseville pottery and it's a very deep read. I had hoped it would be more of a collector's identification and price guide. It is not, but certainly has helped us to understand our collection much better.

I bought this book for a fraction of what other vendors were selling the same out of print book for. The condition was remarkable, it was in even nicer condition than described, it was packed with the greatest care and I received it in just a few days with regular shipping. I couldn't be more pleased. I recommend this seller and his products wholeheartedly. Judy Harris
