I suggest the printed copy over the Kindle copy. I don't know how you could see a whole page on a screen the size of a Kindle. I love my kindle, but not for this. I believe you can download a sample before you buy, so try that first. These tunes were written and recorded note-for-note from the originals, even though the banjo players on some of these originals sound more like guitar players who were playing with a banjo. Anyway, the printed copy is clearly readable and includes the CD. Every song appears twice; one with the full band, and one minus the banjo so you can play with it.

Tab was unreadable. Very poor digital copy. Additionally, the audio was not included, which it was supposed to be according to Kindle. Do not purchase the Kindle edition, worthless.
