Being new to the hammered dulcimer, I have bought 5 different books, but this book is by far the most organized and varied. It has a well-organized Table of Contents, listing songs by skill level (novice, intermediate, advanced), Dance types (Reels, Figs, Hornpipes, Waltzes), and Time Periods (Celtic, "Old Time Tunes", International, Renaissance, Victorian). A very nice addition are the 7 duets! But perhaps the most valuable aspect of this book is the LARGE print which makes reading music infinitely easier, and the grouping of pcs for special occasions. Because of that, I am able to set realistic goals and monitor my progress more easily. Peggy Carter makes it very easy for the beginning dulcimetist to progress from student to performer.

I love these songs and the way that Peggy has arranged the book. I especially like the songs arranged for two hammered dulcimers. Thanks, Peggy!

Nice collection of music for the musician looking for just the right tune. A must for one who performs often, or who just likes to play a nice variety of good arrangements.

Will use this for performing in church! My hammered dulcimer workshop wants to work on one of these songs soon
